WATCH THE POLLS .- In his last issue Old Mattingly warms his Republicans to beware of frauds apon the ballot-box. Democrats do you hear that? do you understand that you are to be prevented voting? Dont some of you know that you have helped to elect Republican township officers, they will reward you for your support this fall, by attempting to deprive men of your principles the privilege of voting. In several Democratle townships they have the Board in their hands, by virtue of 1 emocratic votes. All you have to do is to see that all your legal voters vote. All that any legal voter has to do when his vote is challenged is to swear that he is over twenty one years of age, that he has been a resident of the State six months and of the township ten days. When he makes oath to this, then the board are compelled to take the ballot .evidently going to try to play off in this county .-Vote your ticket without answering any of their

At the appointed time a large crowd was on hand punctual and by the time the bal had played one time in front of the room,it was swelled to over two hundred nearly all of whom were Democrats, of the most enthusiastic kind The torches were then lit, which numbered 75, a precession was formed and headed by the band marched up Michigan street to Adams, then west to Centre then down to Laporte, then west to Walnut then north to Garro, then east to Miehigan and then up street and baked in front of the Edwards House. Packard was then called for. who, after a tune from the band, appeared on the verandah, and made one of the best short speeches we have heard this campaign. He was frequently and most enthusiasticly cheered. Next Reeve was called for and kept the liouse in a continual uproar of applituse and laughter, by an allusion to to som : Republican aucedotes that were told in the place he then occupied, by the Republican speakers of Wednes lay evening, previous. Corbin was then called and made some most appro printe and well timed remarks or suggestions to the Democrats of the county, telling them to prepare for the work that was before them. At the mention of the name of Douglas, who was expected here on Wednesday, the cheers were deafening. The ground gave numerous cheers, after which they were formed in precession and marched to the Club Room, where the lamps were extinguished, and still other rounds of cheers were given. We never witnessed better feeling in any pelitical gathering. All even the Democrats thems, lves, were supprised at the turn out. Hurrah! Let us keep our lights burning as brightly as now, Who said we fied about the accommolating and victory is ours. Work, DEMOCRATS,
